

26th April Sunday Rune and Card Reading

This week I was called to connect with the Energy of three different Feathers.

Feathers are symbolic of a connection and a communication with higher realms and with Spirit. I was always told that when a feather shows itself to me that my Angels are close by.

Reading no. 1 – Red Kite Feathers

These feathers speak of having a higher vision, seeing the bigger picture and rising above any petty ego concerns. They symbolise a powerful connection with Spirit finding guidance and direction from Source.

Reading no. 2 – Woodpecker Feathers

I have a pair of woodpeckers that come to feed in my garden. They symbolise determination, perseverance and durability. The ability to keep going and through steady and consistent work achieve our goals visions and dreams.

Reading no. 3 – Wood Pigeon Feathers

Wood Pigeons are not afraid to show their feelings. At this time of the year here in the UK they are unashamedly courting and demonstrating their desires. They symbolise an ability to speak openly and to communicate. They know what matters and have a strong connection with family and community.
