

There are certain things that all Tarot Packs have in common.

All of them in different ways deal with what it means to be a Self, navigating a human life with all of the experiences that are both individual and unique to us each, and yet are also experienced by us all, those commonalities that both individually and collectively we each face during the course of a lifetime that make us human and part of the greater collective Soul of Humanity.,

- Life Stages
- Life Lessons, Challenges and Potentials
- Personal Circumstances
- External Circumstances
- Relationship to Self
- Relationship to Others, Family, Friends, Spouses and Partners, Children, Work Colleagues
- Relationship with the Divine, our Spiritual Pathway, our Destiny, our Calling, our Purpose

They connect with us through relationship, energy and intention and they tell a story, or a snippet of a story taken from the timeline of our life.

We can only ever ask or request insight into that which we can actually see. The Tarot Runes and Oracle cards have access to the bigger picture that surrounds us. The conscious and seen aspects of our lives and the unconscious and unseen areas as well.

We can see an overview of this in the diagram of the Circle of Destiny.
